PREPARED BY	Director of Development and Community Relations Human Resources Manager
ISSUE: 09	DATE: March 2022

All staff members of Siena College are expected to support and promote the College’s mission. Siena College, a Catholic secondary school in the Dominican tradition, engages young women in a challenging education that empowers them with the personal resources to make a difference in the world, by searching for truth through a culture of lifelong learning.

The College has a universal expectation for the protection of the young women in its care and is committed to ensuring that all staff promote the inherent dignity and fundamental right of students to be respected and nurtured in a safe school environment. This commitment is drawn from and inherent to the teaching and mission of Jesus Christ, with love, justice, and the sanctity of each human person at the heart of the Gospel. The College has a zero tolerance of all forms of child abuse and actively works to listen to and empower students. The College has policies and processes in place to protect students from abuse and takes all allegations and concerns seriously and responds in line with the organisation’s policies and procedures.

The Development Office was established to bring together all activities which impact on the College’s relationships with its external community and includes reception, fundraising, major events, brand management, marketing and communications, advertising, public, community and media relations and student recruitment. An integrated approach to these activities is required to ensure that the wider community understands and supports the College’s Mission.

Support from the community is reflected in financial and community support and enrolment numbers.

The Director is responsible for the strategic direction and operations of the College’s Development Office: including reception, admissions, marketing, and communications; development and advancement; the community database; the Siena College Alumnae community; archives; events and engagement across community stakeholders and groups. The Director will strategically bring these departments together, whilst capitalising on opportunities to innovate, enhance and drive key efficiencies. The development of positive, lasting relationships with stakeholders is a key aspect of this position.
